Creating and seeking to express ourselves,

We live life for moments at a time.

Then the times fade away,

Only to be rekindled by our memories.

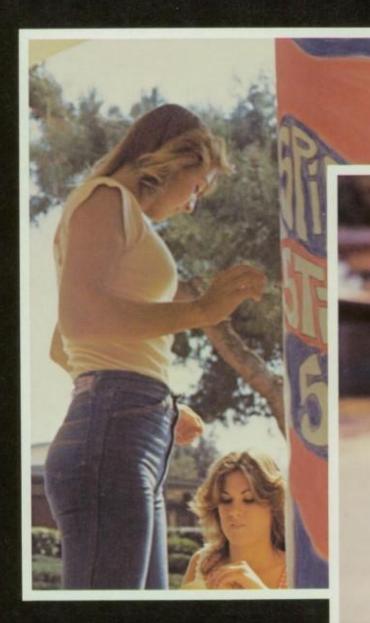

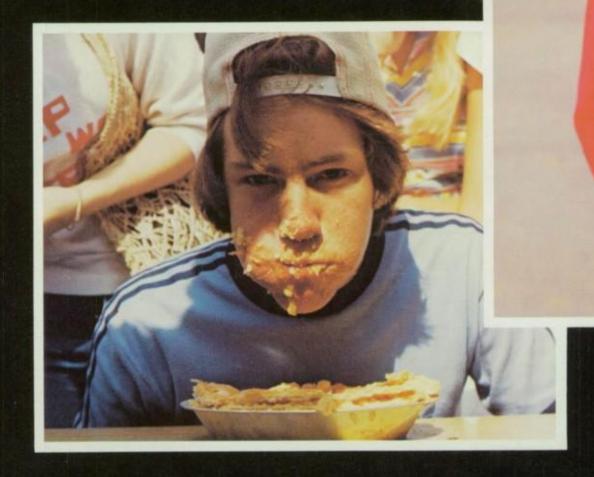

A feeling I hold, known only to my heart,

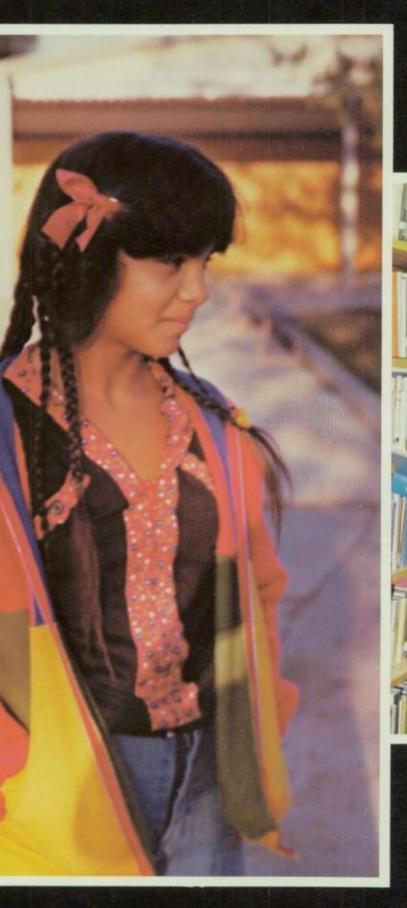

May it be a goal, a thought, or an emotion, I conceal it.

Later, others may discover it

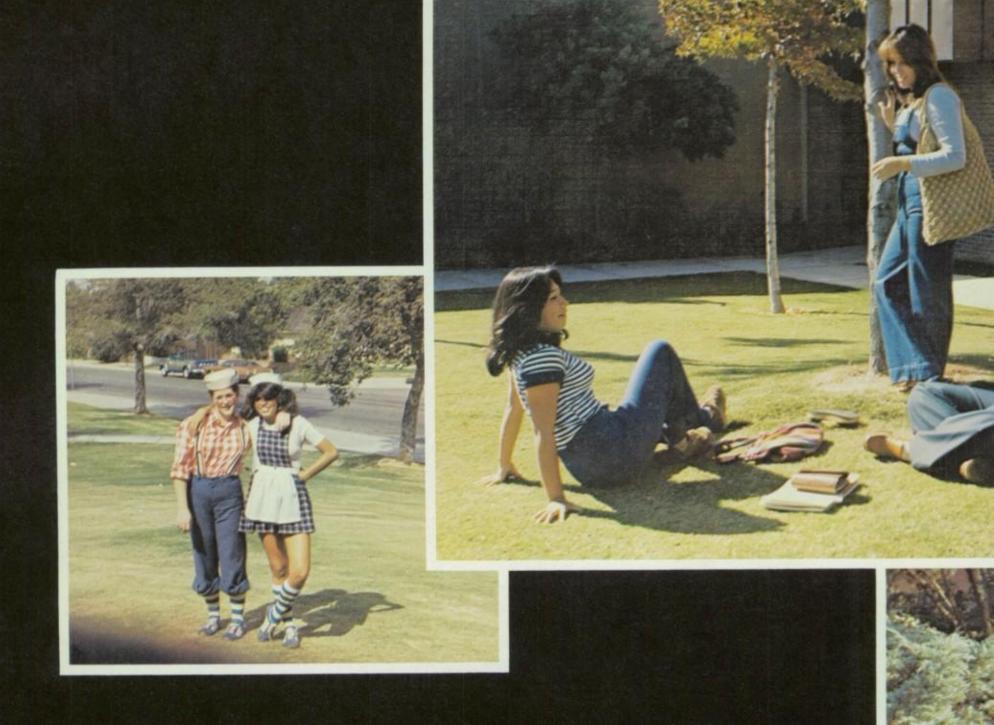

But for now it is mine alone.

Special friends are always near.

We trust in their knowledge and feel secure in their presence.

To share in each other's lives through the years

Is to always be content.

Times of laughter, times of cheering,

They all appear in the course of a day,

Sometimes wanted and sometimes totally unnoticed.

In the end, all of them are appreciated.

LUANNE, WELL WHAT CAN I SAY! (I THOUGHT IP START OFF ORIGINAL) It's bein a great year. The time went by so gast! fts sad to leave usn't it. But it's calso igreat to graduate! Homecoming Wishes Come True

Did you ever wish you were someone or something else? Our 1977 Homecoming Assembly allowed us to do exactly that for a day! It all took place October 7th in the gym, using the theme "I Wish I Were..."

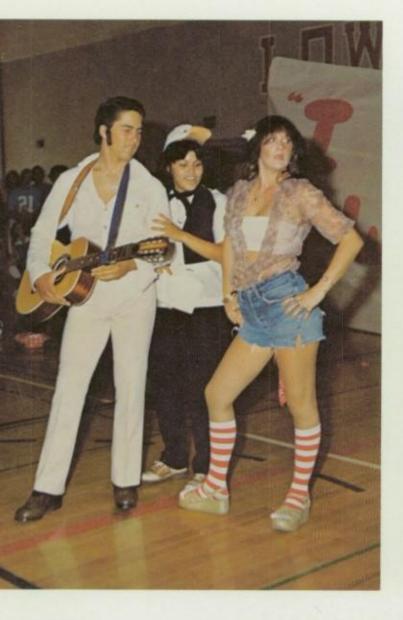

Students came to school dressed as who or what they wished they were. Everything from Linda Ronstadt to Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs became a familiar sight around campus. An Assembly, staged like television's popular "The Gong Show," was held, complete with a "new" Chuck Barris as host. Many of the students in costume impersonated their favorite stars. After these performances, the audience voted on their choice for best act, and to the delight of all his fans, Elvis was declared the winner.

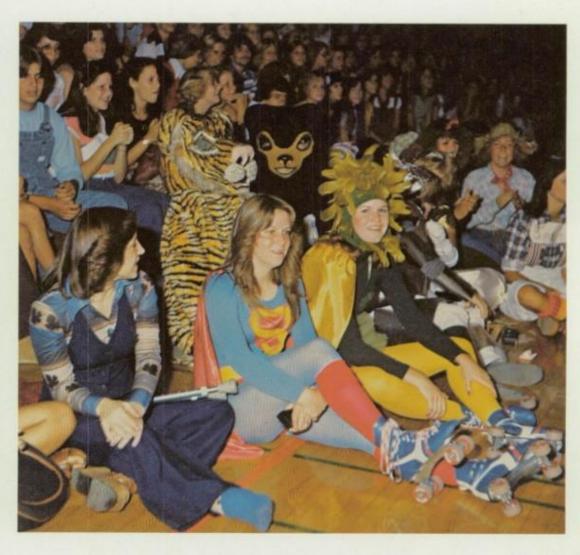

Later, there was some seriousness added to all the fun and mayhem. The cheerleaders taught us the new cheers, followed by the competition yell which the Seniors won.

Varsity Cheerleaders Boost Enthusiasm

Long before anyone was aware of it, the cheerleaders were hard at work preparing themselves for camp. This expended energy was, however, all worthwhile for they received many honors.

Once school got underway much time was devoted to many activities, such as delivering handprinted signs to the Varsity football players. In this way the girls psyched up the team for the CIF game. They also gave candy treats to the cheerleaders of opposing teams.

Fund-raisers, such as bake sales and bottle collecting were carried out through the summer as well as during school. In addition, this year the pep squad had the honor of performing at the Class of 1967 reunion.

The cheerleaders kept themselves very busy decorating the halls, raising money, and most importantly, cheering our various teams on through each season.

"A Chorus Line" Shines

The 1977-1978 Patriot Marching Band, Drill Team, and Color Guard started another busy year with great enthusiasm and high spirits.

Working hard to evolve an outstanding and entertaining show, the Patriots began their marching season with long summer rehearsals. In addition, numerous morning practices were held.

Guided by advisors Jorge Garcia and Holly Blaha and led by Drum Major Victor Candioty, Drill Team Captain Karen Kermode, and Color Guard Captain Geneva Irelan, the 91 members of the band, drill team, and color guard contributed much time, hard work, and money toward their cause. Through everyone's combined efforts the half-time show, based on the Broadway musical "A Chorus Line," was very well received.

The Patriots held many performances, including a show at the L.A. County Fair and another at Anaheim Stadium, at the request of the California Angels. They also performed at all of Lowell's home and C.I.F. football games and marched in the Whittier and La Habra Christmas Parades.

Raising money for their spring tour to San Francisco, the biggest event of the year, the groups engaged in fund-raising activities. Two were "Band McDonald's Day" and the selling of Patriot hats, scarves, and mittens.

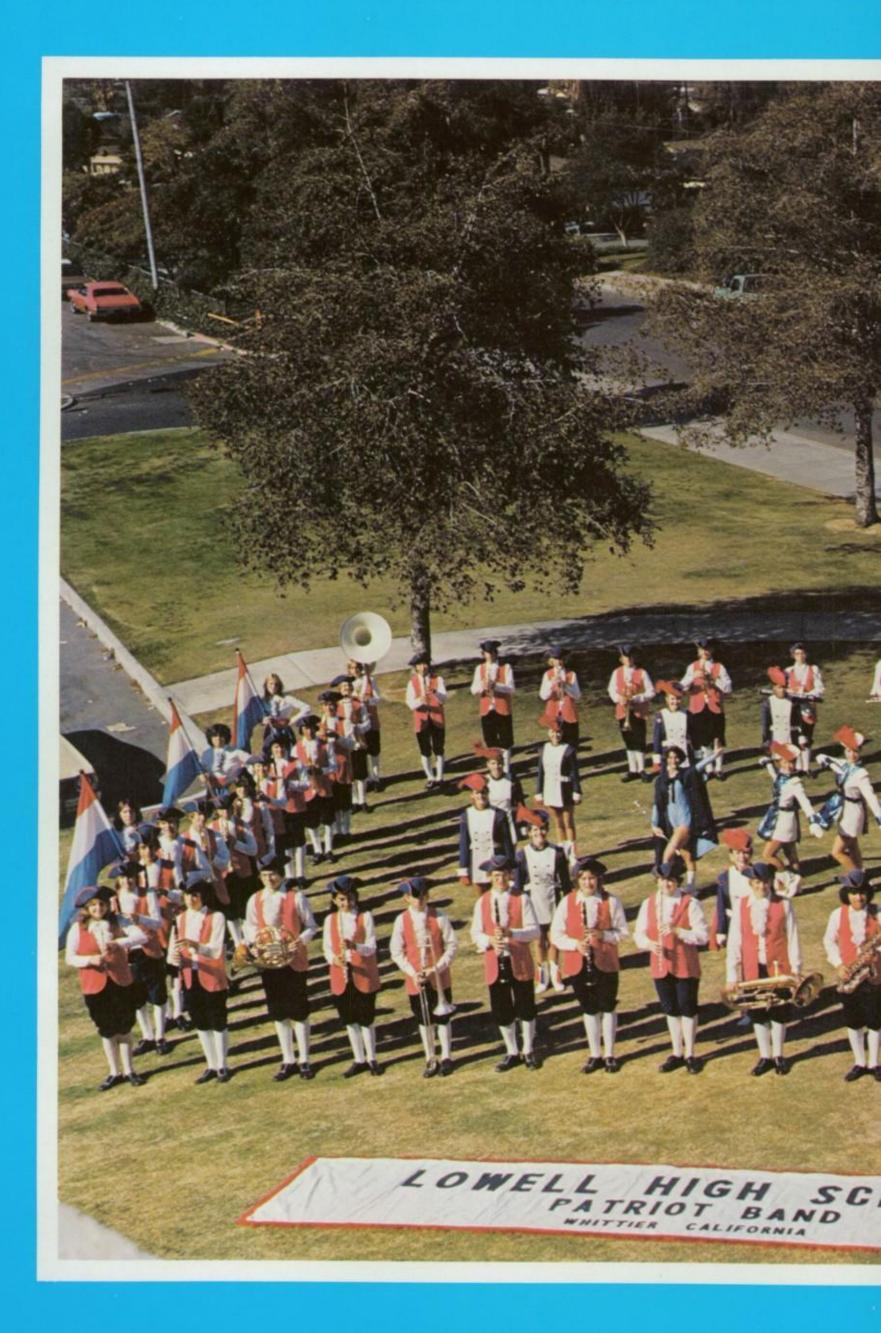

Several tough field show competitions were on the season's agenda; spiritedly stepping off to the announcement, "Lowell High School proudly presents 'A Chorus Line!' " the units marched to the songs of the musical, including the popular "What I Did For Love." The band's new majorette, Catherine Cuccio, reigning "Miss Junior Majorette of Southern California," did her own routine to "One" at all performances. The Pepette Drill Team gave their own award-winning versions of "Dance Ten, Looks Three" and "I Hope I Get It." The Guard added a lot of color and additional entertainment with their routines, which appeared throughout the program. All in all, the 1977-1978 season proved to be exciting and rewarding for the Patriots, who marched away with several impressive awards and a lot of pride.

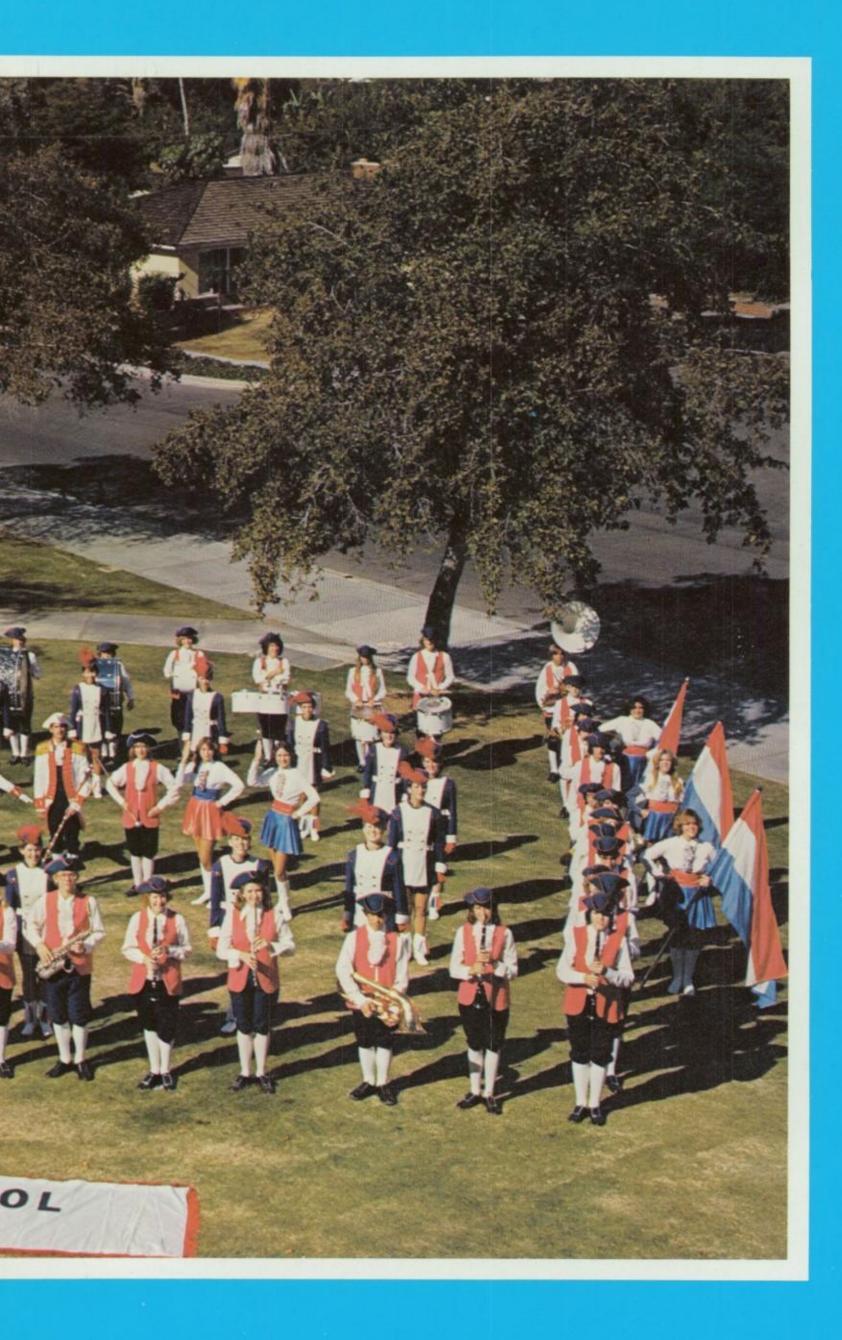

Awards: Azusa Competition: Band, 3rd; Drill Team, 1st; Color Guard, 1st. Glendora Competition: Band, 3rd; Drill Team, 3rd. Long Beach Competition: Band, 4th. Savanna Competition: Band, 4th, Drill Team, 2nd; Color Guard, 2nd. At Savanna Competition, the band, drill team, and color guard achieved the highest score they had attained in three years; they qualified for the S.C.S.B.O.A. "Excellent" Medal.

Rabbit Invades Household

An invisible white rabbit starred in "Harvey," Lowell's comical fall play this year. The comedy traces the antics of Elwood P. Dowd, a wealthy man in his forties, and his companion, Harvey, the rabbit.

Mr. Dowd's family is very upset and embarrassed by the fact that the eccentric millionaire may be out of his mind. So it's decided that he be committed to Chumley's Rest, a sanitarium.

Unfortunately, more complications keep springing up. Mr. Dowd's sister, Veta, goes to the sanitarium to arrange for his stay and a terrible mistake takes place. The staff detains her, thinking she is insane. After this episode, both the staff and Elwood Dowd's family begin a frantic search for him. During all the commotion, Dr. Chumley and Veta actually become convinced that Harvey does exist. Elwood P. Dowd finally returns home and is reunited with his family, and of course, Harvey.

The play ran smoothly onstage, with the assistance of those backstage. The make-up and costume crew did a commendable job transforming students into characters, and the Technical Theatre crew also helped in Harvey's success.

The cast in order of appearance included: Suzanne Johnson, Lisa Irwin, Don Gibson, Cara Lamning, Kim Malk, Sandy Stear, Greg Christy, John Roohan, Stuart Smith, Carolyn Sampron, Ernst Hoeckmann, and Chris Monte. Mr. Paul Bucalstein was the director, and Joshua Townshend-Zellner was the student director.

Angels Entertain Audience

"My Three Angels" was staged in Lowell's P.A.C. Dec. 8, 9, 10. The plot evolves around the Ducotel family: father, mother, and daughter (Ron Johnston, Valerie Reveles, Suzie Warwick) who are living behind their store in a convict colony. The daughter, Marie Louise, faints when the mail arrives, discovering that her boyfriend Paul (John Roohan) is going to marry someone else. Three convicts who were repairing the roof (Joseph-Joshua Townshend-Zellner; Jules-Stuart Smith; Alfred-Larry Parker) enter. Seeing what has occurred, they revive the girl, who ignores all advice and tries to throw herself into a river. Alfred, however, saves her. Marie Louise's father Felix comes in and tries to protect his daughter, from the convicts' clutches, believing they are trying to harm (not help) her. Felix threatens and pleads with them while his wife tells him to offer thanks, finally convincing him of his mistake. When the convicts are invited to Christmas dinner, they steal and cook a chicken and steal a tree. Later, Uncle Henri (Bill Kontur) and Paul arrive. Henri demands to go over the books for the store that Mr. Ducotel is temporarily running for him. Joseph, knowing the books are in chaos, sends his pet snake after him. They also try to reunite Paul and Marie Louise, but when Paul is accidentally killed by the snake, a handsome lieutenant (Dominic Clemence) comes in to take his place.

Unique "Illusions" and Experiences

This year's dance concert consisted of a variety of colorful performances. Seventeen girls and three boys portrayed their skills in the program, "Illusions in Dance."

A variety of numbers were danced to at the concert, including ballet, jazz, and modern. All participants were members of the advanced dance classes. Also performing was Paul Bucalstein, the students' instructor and the program's director.

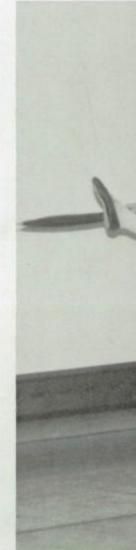

On closing night, three professional dance instructors were present to judge the students on their talent and their ability to perform before an audience. Jackie Stott won the competition and was presented with a $200.00 scholarship.

The production ran for two consecutive weekends, February 17, 18, 24, and 25. The modern dance concert was a unique and exciting experience for both the advanced dance class and those in attendance.

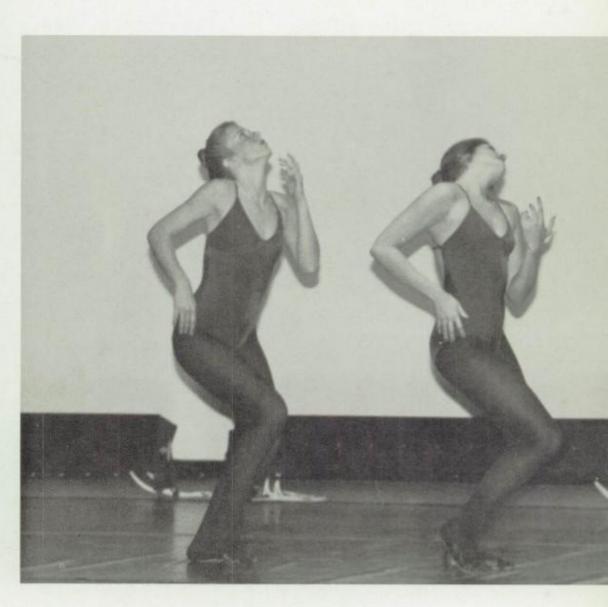

Girls Move

Girl's League began their hectic year prior to the beginning of school. The Big and Little Sister Tea, held September 9, welcomed in the freshmen girls and introduced them to the Pep Squads and Drill Team. Lucky winners also received door prizes at the end of the get-together.

October came, and with it, the candy apple sale. Although they encountered problems with rotting apples, they were able to boost enthusiasm with their Sporit Pop sale. The colorful suckers were sold in the first week of November during Spirit Week.

Almost 3,000 carnations were sold during the annual carnation sale for Valentines Day. This gave everyone a chance to exchange sentiments. Highlighting the year for the Girl's League Board was their yearly dance with the theme, "Could it be Magic." The Diamond Bar Country Club was the site for the well attended dance on March 4.

The girls completed their terms in June by selecting the 1978-79 officers.

Trial Summoned to PAC

"Trial By Jury," the comedy operetta sung by Lowell's New Generation and Concert Choir, was presented on March 16 and 17 in the P.A.C.

Directed by Choral Director Ray Vaughn and his assistant Larry Parker, this musical featured the talents of Stuart Smith as the Judge; Lisa Irwin as Angelina; Richard Schachter as Edwin, the Defendant; Gary Mitchell as Angelina's lawyer; and Fred Valenzano as the Usher. About 20 other chorus members made up the Bridesmaids, Gentlemen of the Jury, Barristers, Attorneys, and the Public.

"Trial By Jury" begins when Edwin, tiring of his girlfriend Angelina, falls in love with another girl, and Angelina takes him to court for breach of promise.

The comedy, written by William Gilbert and Arthur Sullivan, was very well received.

Enthusiasm Dominates Convention

Our second annual A.S.B. Convention began with the choice of Chris Flores as the Convention Chairperson. Once again students gathered in hopes of getting their favorite candidates elected.

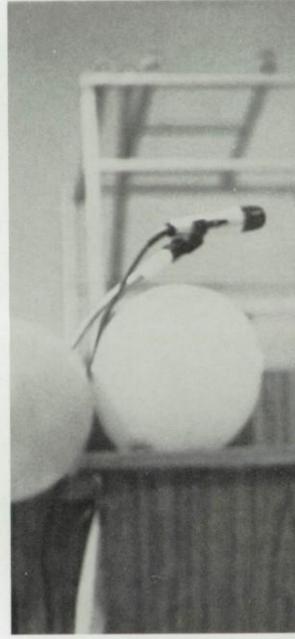

The candidates, campaign managers and State Chairmen all worked feverishly until 12:00 p.m. the night before to have the gym transformed into a convention hall before morning. Some interesting speakers were present to express their views on student government between the voting for A.S.B. offices and the new cheerleaders. They included Robin Young, the former mayor of La Habra and currently councilwoman, our new Prinicpal, Mr. Triggs, and Scott Messinger, previous A.S.B. President.

Each state devised a gimmick to use at the convention. Texas contained cowboys, Oklahoma's followers came from the 1800's era, and Hawaii looked ready for a luau.

Amidst confetti and balloons, the happy new winners were announced, and congratulated by their supporters. Lowell's second annual convention ran smoothly and with much enthusiasm.

Triggs Charts Goals for Lowell

Tom Triggs became the third principal in Lowell High School's seventeen year history. With a varied background of school experience, Mr. Triggs served the Fullerton Union High School District as a mathematics teacher, Coordinator for Student Activities, and Assistant Principal for Student Services. His most recent position before coming to Lowell was as assistant principal at Sonora High School.

As one of his first concerns, Mr. Triggs set out to become more familiar with the students, the parents, and the campus itself. By mid-year, several projects were underway with successful results. One of these was a series of neighborhood group meetings. At these sessions parents were able to communicate with the principal, administrators, and counselors on an individual basis. Working closely with the PTSA, Mr. Triggs supported the publication of a PTSA Newsletter to inform parents and the community about Lowell's program.

Students were impressed to see Mr. Triggs on campus early in the morning, between classes, break, lunch, and after school. He also was a big booster of Lowell's many activities; he attended girls' and boys' sporting events, PAC performances and social happenings. In late November as a part of his ongoing attempt to establish better communication between administration and students, Mr. Triggs met with staff members of the Campus Crier in a mini-press conference to answer questions on a wide range of topics.

ASB Proves Productive

Using the knowledge and experience gained last year as Vice President, Scott Messinger headed one of our most productive ASB Cabinets. Under the guidance of their fearless leader, George West, many tasks were accomplished by the Cabinet members.

Vice President John Hollister, together with Student Congress, undertook the chore of rewriting the Lowell Constitution.

Setting up the budget and managing the school's funds were Cyndi Zeman's responsibilities as Treasurer. Lisa Hagler, Social Chairperson, and Lisa Thaxton, Activities Chairperson, combined their efforts in creating well-received dances and interesting as-semblies. Lisa Thaxton was also responsible for bringing back the traditional Donkey Basketball Game which had been absent for many years.

Cathy Allor, who took over as Publicity Chairperson when Lisa Brown left the post in November, was effective in getting out all the necessary information to the students. And so the teachers would not be left in the dark SFRC Chairperson Craig MacMillan kept them notified.

With a lot of gained experience, the retiring Cabinet gave way to the new members elected at the ASB Convention at the semester.

Lowell Goes to Harvard

The Varsity Debate Team of Scott Moore and Ellen Raine were one of three debate teams in the entire state of California, and eleven across the nation who were asked to the prestigious Harvard Round Robin Debate Tournament. The tournament was held at Cambridge, Massachusetts, February 16-19.

Maria Ontiveros and Roy Newman, Lowells' other very successful Varsity Debate Team, also went. They debated at the open tournament held after the round robin contest.

All the members of the speech and debate teams worked hard toward one goal: to represent Orange County in the National Speech and Debate Tournament held in Chicago

Informant: Campus Crier

With the goal of producing an impressive newspaper, the Campus Crier began to set their wheels in motion, during a one-week summer workshop. Joining together both experienced and new writers, the staff accomplished their duties to achieve a successful newspaper throughout the year.

Under the leadership of the Editor-in-Chief Kirk Foate, endless hours were endured, and teamwork became essential as the deadlines drew near. Reporting and uncovering stories, conjuring up headlines, developing necessary photographs, and traveling to and from the printer's office became common concerns for everyone.

Finally, with all modifications skillfully carried out by the printer, the finished issues were delivered by early-rising staff members. Eager readers awaited their personal copies.

Every year, the staff discovers new ideas and techniques to improve their paper. Different lay-out forms, page editors, and a cartoonist were a few changes. A Mini-Press Conference was arranged to discuss controversies and topics involving Lowell. Held in late November, staff members and interested students were invited to question the principal, Mr. Tom Triggs. The discussions and results were then added to the opinion page.

Other events also outlined the busy 1977-1978 year, and many appeared in the newspaper. Features included the Donkey Basketball game and Homecoming. Special editions spotlighted the ASB Convention, and in June, the Senior Commencement edition.

During the year, some members of the staff attended the Oktoberfest in Torrance, local county write-offs, and also the State Convention in San Diego. These were designed to be mainly learning situations, but a few managed to have fun.

Minuteman Aims For Originality

Beginning their work early in the summer, the 1977-78 Minuteman converged on Room 1. Here during a summer workshop, the people new to the "yearbook world" were introduced to all the basics and the various techniques that are incorporated into the production of a yearbook.

Another major task accomplished during the summer was the acquiring of $3,000 worth of ads, one of the largest amounts ever raised.

Kicking off their booksales, the Minuteman used the slogan of "Have You Got Yours?, I Got Mine". Posters broadcasting this advertising slogan papered the walls of the school, and the staff members wore T-shirts with the identical phrase.

To help meet all the deadlines, many work parties were held after school. Janet Okon, Editor-In-Chief, added her knowledge and experience to the staff in making the 1977-78 Minuteman a memorable yearbook.

Varsity Sneaks Into CIF

Tying for second place in the Freeway League with two other teams, the Lowell High Varsity Football squad had an excellent showing this year. Experience seemed to be the Pats' key to success. As Coach Rau put it, "We had great seniors which made a tremendous turnaround in the program."

The Pats began the year with a 1-1 preleague record. The game against Sonora was a loss for the Patriots, but they came back to defeat cross-town rival, La Habra, by a score of 15-10.

Surprising nearly everyone at their league opener, Lowell defeated Troy, one of the top seeded teams, by a score of 28-21. Holding the Warriors scoreless for three quarters, the Pats proved that they were prepared to play. Troy was able to pick up three quick touchdowns against Lowell's secondary in the fourth quarter, but it wasn't enough as the Patriots held on to a seven point lead.

On October 7, the Patriots were matched against Western. The Varsity emerged victorious with a 19-7 Homecoming win.

Two wins and two losses took place prior to the Anaheim game. Coming in with a 4-2 league record, it was necessary for the Pats to obtain a victory against Anaheim in order to have a shot at CIF. With a minute and a half left in the final quarter, Lowell recovered an Anaheim fumble. On the third play with only 34 seconds left, quarterback John Doak threw a short pass to Corwin Bales. Bales carried the ball 35 yards for a touchdown giving Lowell the 13-7 win.

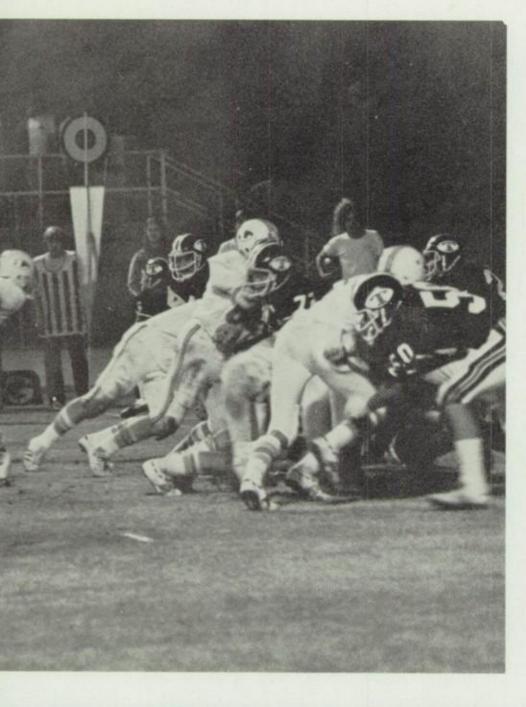

Going to the CIF playoffs as a wild card team, the Patriots went up against undefeated Pacifica. Lowell was optimistic going into the game; however, it was to no avail as Pacifica held them scoreless.

Those named to the All-League teams at the completion of the season were Robin Feeney, Jeff Ramsey, John Sarancik, and Pat McKenna. The "Most Inspirational Player" was Mike Henry while Robin Feeney was voted as the "Most Valuable Player."

Patriots Attain Goal

Sophomores Come Close

Narrowly missing a league championship was the only dim point of the sophomore football season. With a creditable 5-2-2 overall and a 5-1-1 season record, coach Sutton's team's dominance was evident.

The sophs gave up only 30 points during the regular season and their offense more than doubled that of their opponents.

The critical game of the season was the first league game against Troy, which was to be the only loss in league play. Winning the remaining league games was no consolation for the league crown, though.

Frosh Capture League Crown

"Outright and unchallenged champions," bragged coach Trigsted about his freshman football team, and rightly so.

The Patriot freshman football team compiled an impressive 6-1-1 overall, and a 5-0-1 league record, good enough to out-distance their nearest competitor by 2½ games.

Leading the offensive unit were quarterback Greg LeVan, and halfback Tim Bertola. LeVan ran for five touchdowns and passed for five. Bertola ran for 10 touchdowns on the season to lead the Pat attack.

On defense Larry Cron led the team in interceptions and tackles. Coach Trigsted heralded Cron as being a league standout, because of his fine efforts.

Assisting Trigsted with the Freshman team were Greg Thomas, Gary Pugh, and Marty Carrillo.

Varsity Changes Their Course

This year the Varsity Cross Country team finished with a record of 2-7. The two wins were against Western 19-44 and Magnolia 19-43.

Changes were made this season for the varsity team. Instead of running their usual two mile course as in past years, they jogged a longer and more tiring three mile course. In upcoming years all meets will consist of not just the Varsity team, but Junior Varsity and Frosh-Soph team running this course and the 2 mile course will be eliminated.

The lack of Seniors this year did create some difficulties for the new coach, Randy Gray, and the team. Fortunately, more experienced runners are promised for future seasons.

The Varsity's high placers in enthusiasm and ability were given to Bob Seymor, Most Inspirational, and Mike Herman, Most Valuable Player.

J.V. Continues Winning Streak

By receiving the identical score as last year's team, the Junior Varsity continued their winning streak. Three defeats marred the Junior Varsity Cross Country season. One loss to Sonora 30-25, one to Buena Park 50-15, and another to La Habra 17-4, giving the Junior Varsity runners a 6-3 record overall.

The most controversial meet was against Buena Park. Because the Patriots used ineligible runners, the score was changed and Buena Park was awarded the victory, alternating the previous score from Lowell 25-Buena Park 33 to Lowell 50-Buena Park 15.

At the Cal High Invitational, the team took 3rd and was awarded a well-deserved medal for their high placement.

In December at the Cross Country Awards Banquet, the team's new coach, Randy Gray, presented Mike Bennet with the Most Valuable Player Award.

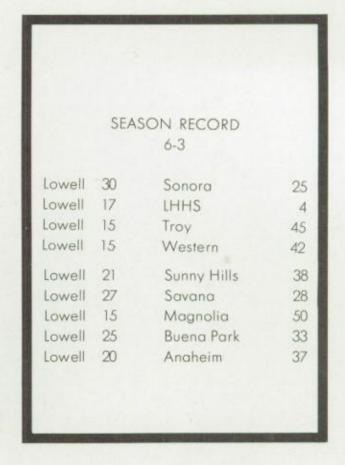

J.V. CROSS COUNTRY: Mark Belakof, Gary Gross, Ron Brown, Mike Bennet, James Witford, Camron Mumry, Allan Bowen.

Frosh-Soph Winds Up With Only One Loss

The Frosh-Soph Cross-Country team wound up with only one loss against Buena Park resulting in a season record of 8-1.

Being pitted against Buena Park resulted in the team's most exciting meet. Losing by only a few points did cause great disappointment to all the Frosh-Soph team members.

One great win occurred at the Cal High Invitational. The high-spirited tracksters captured the first place medals.

Eric Behring was honored as Most Valuable Player for his high accumulation of points and helpfulness to the team.

Water Polo Gets New Look

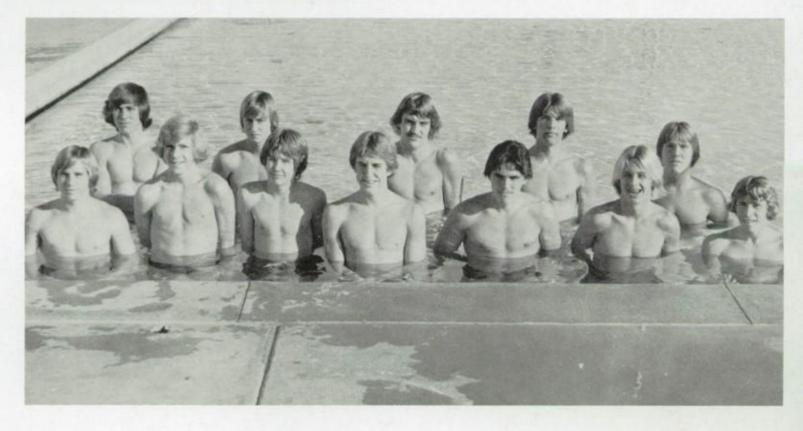

At the beginning of the Water Polo season, returning players were informed that they were to be under the direction of a new coach. Tim Murphy, formerly of Anaheim High School, was a key factor in assisting the Varsity team with a 7-7 record. It was a positive improvement over last year's 1-10 record, excellent teamwork also helped.

Others also made contributions to the season's outcome. High scorers such as John Woodling, who also made All-League, had 63 goals; Rod Miller-39; Greg Parker-36; and Jeff Mitchell-21 were all instrumental to the Water Polo's break-even results. Next year the team will be moved to the Orange League, which is a more competitive league.

J.V.'s Improve to 5-4 Record

Coach Tim Murphy led the J.V. Squad to 5 wins and 4 losses. Their nine games were of special interest for three ended in sudden death overtimes.

The J.V.'s were victorious in one of those sudden deaths. In past years when the Lowell team played against Sunny Hills, they have lost. This year, however, was a different story, for the J.V. squad defeated Sunny Hills with a score of 4-1.

As the H2O polo season progressed, the J.V.'s improved their overall playing ability with the excellent coaching of Tim Murphy. In the upcoming season the J.V. Squad will be moved to the Orange League.

An Improving Team

With a 4-5 season the Frosh-Soph Water Polo team improved their overall playing ability, thanks to the assistance of Coach Tim Murphy.

The Frosh-Soph Polo team posed a problem for many of the opposing teams because they concentrated their work on several plays. In practice, shooting drills also made a great contribution to the outcome of the games. Improvement was a key factor in being a thorn in the opposing team's side. In the upcoming season the team will be moved to the Orange League. The teams in this league will be tougher competition.

Varsity Falls Flat

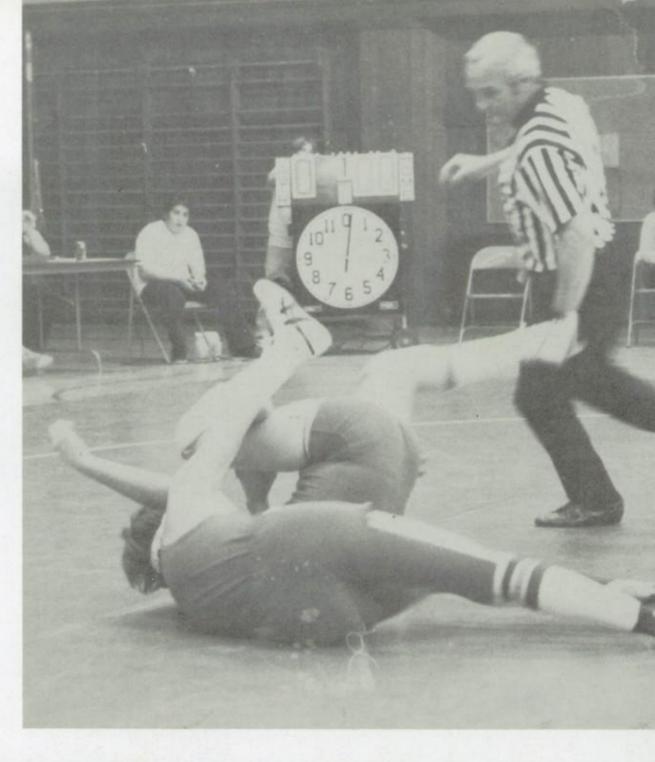

The Varsity Wrestlers wound up with a 0-8 season. The Matmen's closest meet was against Fullerton High School, with a score of 33-35, finalizing with a 2 point loss. The Match was down to the 2nd to the last wrestlers. The Patriots lost.

According to Coach Greg Thomas, the main problem that really hurt Lowell's Varsity in this match and through the year was not always having a full team. This made the Pats forfeit 12 to 18 points per match.

The Varsity Wrestlers Most Valuable Player Award was given to Larry Mehelic, co-captain and 2nd place wrestler in the league, and his fellow co-captain, Mike Mishler. The Matman awarded Most Improved was John Guy. The Most spirited and enthusiastic player, Mark Stevens, received Most Inspirational Award.

Defeating Western 42-0 and Fullerton 39-6, the Lowell High Schools Frosh-Soph Wrestlers compiled a record of 2-2.

The team consisted of 12, but many wrestlers were in the same weight category. For example, there were about 8 wrestlers in both the 120 pound and 127 pound weight class. At the same time, Lowell had no matmen at the 138 weight class.

The Most Valuable Player for the '77'-'78' year was Gary Billinger. By the end of the year, Steve Bippus moved up to Varsity standard; for this accomplishment, he was selected Most Improved Player.

Pats Falter After Fast Start

Making an outstanding entrance into their league season, the Patriot Varsity Cagers arrived ready to face the opposition. Capturing a second place standing in the La Quinta Tournament and the championship crown from the Lowell Tournament, they ended their pre-league record with six wins and two losses.

With a successful pre-league behind them, the Pats entered the race with hopes of retaining last year's Freeway League title. However, the cagers were soon disappointed when they lost in back-to-back competitions to Sunny Hills and Buena Park.

Fortunately, coming off their two losses the Patriots, coached by Barry Gottula, regained their momentum. The cagers defeated five teams in succession which placed them in good contention for a high league standing. Unfortunately the opposing teams in the following two games were once again Buena Park and Sunny Hills. Both schools were able to pull off wins.

Though unable to capture first place in league, the Pats could still secure a CIF berth with wins over Anaheim, Savanna, and Western. In a tense overtime game, however, the Varsity came up short to Anaheim, making a CIF berth possible only with a Troy loss. The Troy Warrior loss did not materialize, and the cagers had to be content with a fourth place league standing.

Allowing an average of 54 points per game to their opponents, captain Mark Ledbetter and MVP Gary Heil, led the team to capturing first in league and fifth in the county for defense. Gary was named as Most Inspirational and Matt Adams received Most Improved. Mark Ledbetter and Gary Heil also made the All League team.

Frosh Post 12-8 Season

"Illnesses were our major opponent this year. If it weren't for the flu, we might have stood a chance of winning league." Coach DeCrona made it clear that the team potential was never utilized this season. Even with the high absentee rate the team managed to capture fourth place with a 12-8 record overall.

Throughout the season the freshmen squad showed constant inprovement. The illnesses of front line players enabled the reserves to gain the necessary experience vital for a deeply talented team next year.

Patriot Swimmers Get Wet

With a record of 2-4, at press time, the Varsity swimmers finally ended a year of drought in swimming. At the season's start, led many to believe that it was going to be an arid season for the Varsity Squad. In their first meet they lost to Brea. However, as the season continued the swimmers bobbed to the surface by conquering La Habra.

Seniors, Ralph Searcy, Rick Harris, and David Luka, all made fantastic contributions to the teams morale, and to the fine efforts put out by the team, for they pushed the team to the limit, ending with a 2-4 season. Coach Ben Harrison did his usual excellent commanding of the team.

Frosh-Soph Swim to Win

Winning several meets this year the Frosh-Soph swam to 4-2 season at press time. Frequently the Frosh-Soph encountered tough teams. At the Tri-Meet against Los Altimitos and Palos Verdes, the Frosh-Soph found out that they weren't the best team in the League. Coach Tim Murphy had some excellent swimmers to work with, but all of the swimmers were good. Many a time coach Tim Murphy, beamed from ear to ear when he saw his team swimming toward a victory.

Coach Murphy initiated a new work-out for the Frosh-Soph squad. He had them work with weights and had them come to many morning workouts he made.

Girls of the 1977-78 GAA Board assumed many responsibilities this year. They kept up previous activities along with establishing a new tradition-GAA sweaters. With the rising number of girls participating in sports, it became necessary for them to host two award banquets.

The board undertook the challenge of sponsoring the yearly Sadie Hawkins Dance and a fund-raising event. The cabinet consisted of Cathy Lindenau, President; Patty Cramer, Vice President; Lynda Sezon, Secretary/Treasurer; and Carol Harvey, Activities Chairperson. The four girls with their advisor, Mrs. Jo Waldman, worked energetically to make this a productive year.

Girls' Cross Country Forges Ahead

Coached by Randy Gray, former Lowell student and trackster, the Girls Cross Country team forged ahead into a season which culminated in a 5-2 record. This effort resulted in a second place standing in League. In addition to the normal League meets, two events which helped fill the girls' agenda were invitationals at Mt. Sac and Cal High.

The team was sparked by freshman Sherri Bray, whose tremendous performance enabled her to acquire the Most Valuable Player award. Her accomplishments included breaking the 2-mile home course record. Unfortunately, Sherri broke her foot just prior to League Finals. It was believed by many of her teammates and Coach Gray that Sherri's participation at the Finals might have altered the team's fourth place finish. Brenda Milburn was also influential to the squad and therefore, was voted Most Inspirational.

On the team's overall effort, Coach Gray commented, "For only having eight girls they did a really fantastic job, and each girl ran to her top performance during each race."

An exceptional season was had by both Varsity and J.V. tennis teams. Coach Sandra Wilson aided the Varsity in attaining the third place standing of 8-4-1.

Three doubles and three singles were chosen to go to League Finals. The doubles teams consisted of Kathy Gilmore and Leann Banco, Mary Ann Bartolone and Tracy Weiss, Linda Keh and Jana Davis. The participating singles players were Paula Dolberg, Maria Schindelmann and Jackie Benavidez.

Paula Dolberg's season record of 34-2 and her second place captured at finals earned her the right to go to CIF.

Volleyball Spikes for Victory

Varsity volleyball, consisting of five underclassmen and four returning seniors, had a creditable season with an 8-6 record. The young squad placed fourth in League and did well in the Savanna tournament finishing fifth out of sixteen teams.

Two players were chosen as "Patriots of the Month" for volleyball, Cathy Lindenau and Carol Harvey. Cathy's skill also led her to be chosen to play on the All-Freeway League Second Team.

The Junior Varsity girls had an impressive year, ending with a 10-4 record. This was sufficient to place them third in League. The B team had a short season as they played only five games. These five games, however, produced a second place standing at the end of the season.

Hockey Sweeps League Championship

Despite the swampy fields and wintry weather, both hockey teams were able to place high in their divisions.

The Varsity team compiled a record of 7-0-3, clinching the first place position. For the second consecutive year they made their way to CIF undefeated. Lowell was matched up against Claremont in their first CIF playoff game. The game ended in a tied 0-0 score, but because of the fact that Lowell obtained more penetration time, they emerged victorious. This was the farthest Lowell had ever gone in CIF. In the second CIF game Lowell was faced with Charter Oak. The team lost 6-2, eliminating them from further play.

Also commendable for their hard work and determination was the J.V. Hockey Team. The girls did exceptionally well, earning a second place record of 8-1-1. Coach Sondra Virden noted, "I was pleased with the way the J.V.'s played. Only four out of the seventeen girls had ever played hockey before, and we got second place."

The teams worked well together with their winning combination of skill and enthusiasm.

Basketball Raids Court

The '77-'78 Varsity Basketball Team finished with a passable season of 8-6 qualifying them for third place. Getting off to a slow start with a loss to Sunny Hills, the squad made a comeback with five consecutive wins. High scorer for the Varsity was Carol Harvey, who helped the team tremendously.

The J.V. Basketball Team, coached by John Koehler, showed great potential by receiving second place with a record of 10-4. Janet Henry and Melissa Jones highlighted the team with their skill and enthusiasm.

All the girls who were members of the basketball teams had to have a lot of dedication and eagerness. They displayed this by going to 6:30 a.m. practices for conditioning and working on their skills. Coach Waldman remarked, "This year's team has shown a great deal of improvement and I'm impressed."

Tracksters Put Best Foot Forward

The track team maintained a skillful running season in spite of the rain that delayed a few of the meets.

Helping support the short distant runners were Senior Karen Johnstone and Junior Lori Harding who ran three events.

Krista Larson, one of only two seniors on the team, led the field eventers with her ability to shot put and high jump.

The long distant runners had to have both endurance and speed to run anywhere from a short 440 yard race to a long 2-mile race.

All three groups were strong to form a tough team, and they almost always placed near the top.

Gymnasts Demonstrate Flexibility

Gymnastics at Lowell was in full swing as the girls completed their second season of participating in League competition. The skills which the girls had accumulated through hours of daily practice were put to use as they performed lively routines which exhibited both versatility and suppleness.

The team consisted of eighteen girls who were coached by Holly Blaha. Their abilities ranged from the strength necessary for the vault, to the gracefulness possessed by the girls in the floor exercise.

Badminton Rallies

With birdies soaring and rackets wooshing through the air, the badminton team began its seasonal flight.

They practiced early in the morning before school to develop various skills. Coach Greene aided in instructing the girls in serving, volleying and other necessary techniques.

Coach Greene said, "It was a building year because I only had four returning players."

Swimmers Make Waves

Lowell's 1978 spring Swimming and Diving Team were united in their efforts to place themselves high among the League competitors. Early morning workouts, supervised by Coach Jo Waldman, charged up the swimmers for their upcoming season. Although there weren't many returning swimmers, an abundance of new talent was present.

Experience was a key factor in the strength of the team's three returning divers-Sue Herrick, Sally Morris, and Ann Taylor, the two time League champion. Their precision and adeptness brought them respect as being among the best in League competition.

Softball Slides to Base

Softball began the season early with tryouts lasting three weeks. Their first game against Sonora ended with a tie from Lowell with a score of 10-10. For the first month many girls were still practicing for basketball, which made it tough to get the softball teams formed in their groups.

The J.V. and Varsity teams, coached by Sandra Wilson, were strong at all positions and aggressive during all games and practices.

Girls Complete Another Successful Year of Sports

Last year Lowell's GAA received the award for being best all around in sports. This year they excelled again to remain dominant over the other schools.

Combined with the natural skill of the girls were the long weeks of practicing to learn the rules and strategy for each sport. During this time, team spirit grew within each group. The teams became close units that showed respect for each other.

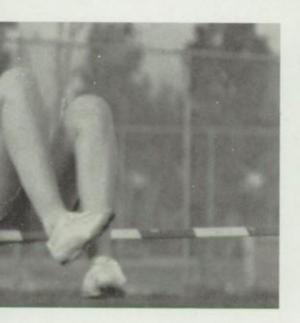

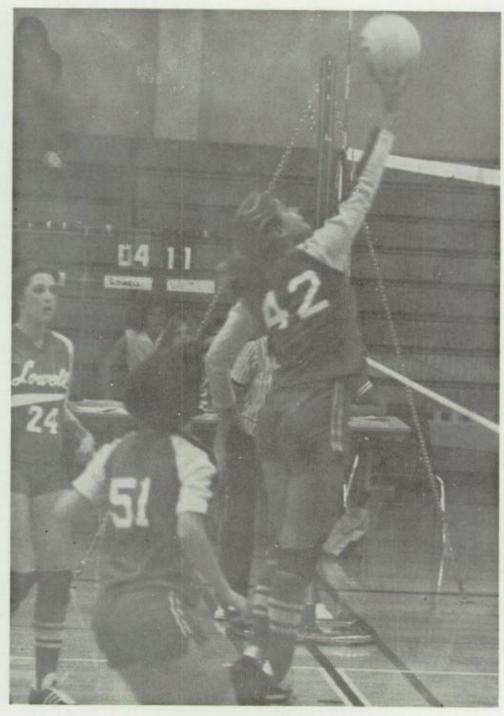

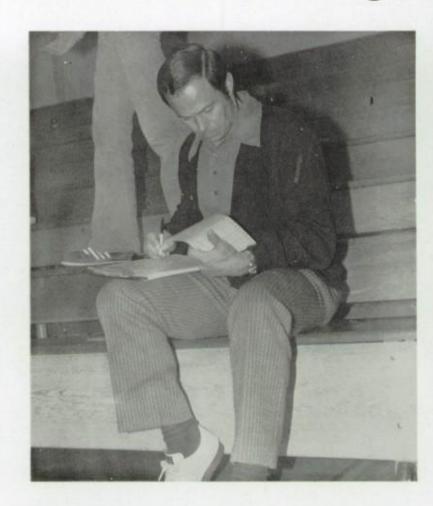

Coaches Devise Strategy

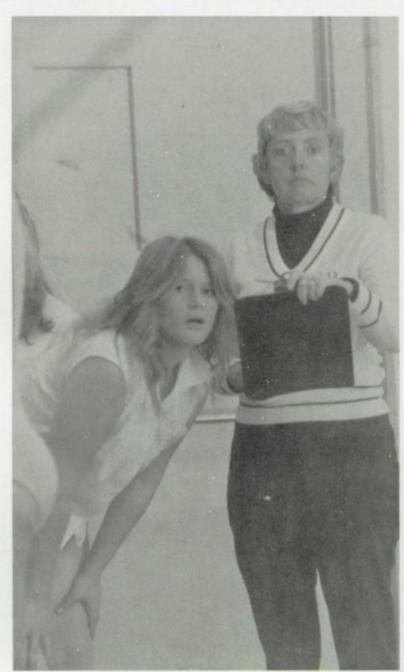

Viewing the girls' faults, correcting them to better the teams, and praising the good qualities were the jobs assigned to the GAA coaches. Through strategy and enthusiasm they helped the various teams celebrate the wins and survive the losses.

Many long hours were spent developing the skills the girls needed to execute the different sports. Another type of teaching was involved-that of good sportsmanship. Although coaching was hard work, the instructors were well rewarded at the end of each sport. With a special admiration, understanding, and friendship formed between the athletes and coaches, the GAA season completed another highly competitive year.
